Your Duty of Disclosure

You and everyone who is insured under your policy must comply with the duty of disclosure. Make sure you explain the duty to any other insureds you apply on behalf of.

The duty requires you to tell the Insurer certain matters which will help it decide whether to insure you and, if so, on what terms.

The duty applies when you first apply for your policy and on any renewal, variation, extension or replacement of the policy. i.e.

This is an ongoing responsibility throughout the duration of the policy.

The type of duty that applies can vary according to the type of policy.

If we act on your behalf, to assist us in protecting your interests, it is important that you tell us every matter that you know or a reasonable person in the circumstances could be expected to know, is relevant to the Insurer's decision whether to insure you and, if so, on what terms. We will then assist you in determining what needs to be disclosed to the Insurer in order to meet your duty.

If we act on behalf of the Insurer, you need to refer to the policy which will set out the duty that applies.

When you answer any questions asked by the Insurer, you must give honest and complete answers and tell the Insurer, in answer to each question, about every matter that is known to you and which a reasonable person in the circumstances could be expected to have told the Insurer in answer to the question.

Examples of matters that should be disclosed are:

- any claims you have made in recent years for the particular type of insurance;
- refusal by an Insurer to renew your policy;
- any unusual feature of the insured risk that may increase the likelihood of a claim.

If you (or anyone who is insured under the policy) do not comply with the duty, the Insurer may cancel the policy or reduce the amount it pays in the event of a claim. If the failure to comply with the duty is fraudulent, the Insurer may treat the policy as if it never existed and pay nothing.
